A. READING

Read the passage carefully and choose the correct answer

REMEMBER

Your mind's ability to bring back experiences you have had is your memory. There are two kinds of remembering, recall and recognition. For instance, you may not be able to recall the poem you read yesterday in class, but if you see it again, you will know it instantly because you recognize it.

Some few people have 'total recall,' often spoken of as photographic memory. A person with total recall can recite a whole page of a book he has read only once, or play a musical composition after hearing it once. This is very unusual, however, and most people have difficulty in remembering even names they heard the day before. This is not because most people lack the ability to remember, but because they had not paid much attention to what they heard. They felt no personal reasons to remember. Having a personal reason for remembering is one of the most important factors in a good memory.

When you have a strong reason for remembering, concentrate as you read or listen, and try to connect the new information to things you have already know. A detail is easy to remember when it fits into a whole that makes sense. If you understand the entire history lesson before you try to remember any particular dates, your memory may surprise you.

1. While not directly stated, it may be inferred from the article that _____.

- A. details are more easily remembered by fitting them into a whole
- B. recall and recognition are the same thing
- C. wanting to do a thing is very important to being able to do it
- D. if he will try hard enough, one man can remember as well as Mother

2. This article as a whole tells us about _____.

- A. people who can remember whole pages
- B. people who can't remember names
- C. our memory and how to improve it
- D. recognition and recall

3. A person with photographic memory is _____.

- A. can only remember things if he looks at a photograph
- B. can remember every detail of what he sees or hears
- C. can be found in mental hospitals
- D. brings his camera everywhere he goes

4. One way to improve our memory is _____

- A. to ask other people to repeat something you want to remember.

- B. to have a camera with you all the time
- C. to concentrate on what you hear or read
- D. to learn everything by heart

5. Which sentence is not true?

- A. If you can't remember things, you have no memory.
- B. Recognition and recall are the two kinds of memory.
- C. Total recall is remembering something in its entirety.
- D. A person can remember anything better if he has a strong reason for doing it.

Going to the theatre brings back happy memories, as it (11)..... me of my very first performance on stage, (12)..... was thirty years ago. Parts of that particular night are so vivid that I can still picture myself as though it were yesterday. The excitement amongst the actors, the (13)..... applause and the party after the opening night are memories which will remain with me for (14)..... . I don't know how we managed to do so well. The rehearsals were far from satisfactory because we thought that we could just have two rehearsals a week (15)..... in fact we needed more. The background (16)..... to the last act weren't ready until an hour before the beginning of the play despite the set builder's best (17)..... The director was not satisfied (18)..... anything and he didn't even want to show up on the first night. Admittedly, I wouldn't have wanted to, either. (19).....the night finally arrived, we were all a bit worried. I remember (20)..... through the curtain ten minutes before the start and being amazed at the sight of a full house. Finally, it was time for the curtain to go up. In the end, we proved the director wrong and everything went like clockwork.
