BÀI GIẢNG: LANGUAGE - GRAMMAR
UNIT 1: A LONG AND HEALTHY LIFE
MÔN TIẾNG ANH - SGK GLOBAL SUCCESS – LỚP 11
GIÁO VIÊN: HOÀNG XUÂN – TUYENSINH247

MỤC TIÊU

✓ Grammar: Past simple vs Present perfect

REMEMBER!

We use the past simple to describe:	We use the present perfect to describe:
• something that started and finished in the past.	• something that started in the past, and is still happening now (often used with since, for, so far).
Example: You did a great job yesterday.	Example: You have done a great job so far.
• something that was completed in the past (often used with a time phrase).	• something that was completed in the very recent past (often used with just or recently).
Example: I lost my wallet two hours ago.	Example: I have just lost my wallet.

1. Put the verbs in brackets in either the past simple or the present perfect.

1. He (see) _____ the doctor yesterday.

2. She (suffer) _____ from a serious headache, but after treatment, she felt better.

3. Our living conditions (improve) _____ over the last few decades. Now people live much better.

4. The doctor (just, examine) _____ her. Fortunately, the treatment is working.

Gợi ý: 1. saw 2. suffered

3. have been improved 4. has just examined

2. Talk about your healthy activities, using the past simple or the present perfect.

Go to the gym/ work out

Eat fast food

Eat salad

WRAP UP